DAILY REPUBLICAN.

TOUGH ON EDITORS AND EXES.

Cleveland and Russell Doubled That There is to be a New Deal.

Senators and Representatives who called on President Cleveland yesterday received contradictory evidence of the report that Mr. Cleveland had not intended to give office to those who had been favored under the previous Democratic administration. Ex-Representative Hamilton of South Carolina, called expressly for the purpose of ascertaining whether the report was true and he received an affirmative answer from Mr. Cleveland.

Missouri representatives saw Postmaster General Russell to hear from his own lips the proposed policy of shutting out all editors and ex-postmasters from consideration in the line of appointments under Cleveland. Mr. Russell reiterated what he has been telling all inquirers the last two days. He said none of the highest class Postmasters of Mr. Cleveland's first administration, would be appointed.

It was suggested that in many instances elections had been held and that former Democratic postmasters had been chosen. In such cases Russell said new elections should be held and new men chosen.

REMARKS WILL STAY IN.

Mr. Russell went on to expound the policy further. He said all Republican postmasters whose Democratic predecessors had been allowed four years by Mr. Harrison would be allowed their four years in turn.

SMALL OFFICERS.

An inquiry was made about fourth class postoffices. The postmaster general said he had 5,000 vacancies on hand now and it would take several months to fill them. There was no one talking about removal with all that business ahead. Then he further elucidated the policy. "Except in the case of very small offices," he said, "men will not be appointed who can not give their whole time to the duties. We do not propose to have a man keep store or running a newspaper and being postmaster at the same time."

The information, which is semi-official, outlines the policy of the present administration. It will not be received with shouts of approval by the editorial fraternity nor the wheelbarrow in the party ranks, who have had reason to believe that the plans would be likely to go to those who have been in the push and have worked for party success, and put up their own to think and. It is plain that this new order of things rules out Editor Donahoe, of the Register, and Hon. S. S. Jack, who was Postmaster Hubbard's predecessor. They are barred from even thinking that they will receive the postoffice appointment. They are disqualified from being rewarded in any way. But they can now work. Anybody can do that.

Now look out for the appearance of new candidates for the postoffice. But let it be remembered always that Democratic editors and Democrats who have held office—those who have worked at the polls and have earned actual business and wages of one to three—these are not eligible for consideration.

GOES AWAY.

Mr. Eugene Wakeman, representing U. A. Vandusen, manager of the Chicago Investment Insurance company of Chicago, W. E. Hildreth, special agent of the Hartford, W. E. Hildreth, of the Occident, and W. Mr. W. A. BRADY never lets the grass grow under his feet. No sooner had Ed. Smith, of Decatur, resigned his position than he received an offer of $250 a week to appear with Brady's "After Dark" company, and so well has that manager's reputation become, that Smith accepted and left at once to join the company at St. Louis. How many managers command more respect for their word and agreements than the plucky backer of Corbett?
